

Notes from St. John Neumann Parish Council Meeting
September 18, 2018

The Advent Soup Supper will take place on Tuesday, December 18th at St. John Neumann. Our Advent Reconciliation service will follow.

Planning is beginning for the St. John Neumann Feast Day celebration scheduled for January 19th.

Parish Council elections are coming up. Nominations will take place in October. More information about the process will be announced at a later date.

RCIA begins on September 25th. At present we have two children and three adults enrolled. Religious education for the school year kicked off on September 9th with Mass and a family picnic at Corpus Christi.

The InAsMuch Day of Service is planned for Saturday October 13th.

Youth Ministry has been active over the summer and has many activities planned for the coming year. And the Annual Shaving Cream Wiffle Ball game and picnic started the year off.

Parking lot sealing and striping will begin soon. It was delayed due to the rainy weather.

The selection process of picking out the wood for the elevated area of the sanctuary has begun. The next step will be the actual installation.
